Letter from Santa Kit

Type your child's name and news, print, and leave a little North Pole magic for Christmas morning.

Fill it in (2 minutes)

1. Open this PDF in the free Adobe Acrobat Reader (computer, phone or tablet). Chrome, Edge and Mac Preview work too.
2. Click or tap a highlighted spot (your reader shades every box you can type in) and type. The highlight shows only on screen; it does not print.
3. Some boxes come with friendly sample words. Keep them or type over them with your own.
4. Save, then print at "Actual size" / 100%. Print as many copies as you like, one per child.

Prefer a pen?

- Every page also prints blank: write on the lines and in the open spaces by hand.

Make it extra magical

- Print the letter and certificate on cream or parchment paper, or card stock.
- Sign the letter again with a gold or red pen for a real-ink touch.
- Fold the letter in quarters and slip it into the North Pole envelope (page 6).
- Leave the reindeer note and a few "hoofprints" of oats by the door.

WORKSHOP NO. 1 · CANDY CANE LANE · THE NORTH POLE

North Pole, _____

Dear _____,

Ho, ho, ho! Greetings from the North Pole, where the snow is deep, the cocoa is hot and the workshop is busier than ever. My elves have kept a careful watch this year, and they tell me you are now _____ years old. My, how you have grown!

Mrs. Claus and I were especially proud when you

The elves also told me that this year you learned to _____. The whole workshop cheered when we heard!

Your wishes are written safely in my big book, right beside your name. Before Christmas Eve, please remember to _____, listen to your grown-ups and be kind to everyone you meet. The reindeer and I will be flying over _____ very soon!

P.S. _____

With love and a jolly ho, ho, ho,

WORKSHOP NO. 1 · CANDY CANE LANE · THE NORTH POLE

North Pole, _____

Dear _____,

What a wonderful year you have had! The elves have told me all about it, and Mrs. Claus and I are so proud of you.

Your Christmas wishes are written safely in my big book, right beside your name. The workshop is buzzing, the reindeer are practicing their takeoffs, and the cookies in the kitchen smell delicious.

Every night I look at my big map of the world, and your home is marked with a shiny gold star. Mrs. Claus is baking her famous gingerbread, and the elves are tying every bow extra tight.

Keep being kind, keep helping the people around you, and remember to go to sleep early on Christmas Eve. I'll be stopping by very soon!

North Pole envelope

CUT · FOLD · GLUE

✂ cut on the dashed line

1 · Cut

Cut around the outside dashed line. Print on regular paper or light card stock.

2 · Fold

Fold the two side flaps back, then the bottom flap. Glue the bottom flap onto the side flaps.

3 · Fill

Fold the letter in half and in half again and slide it in. It fits the certificate too.

4 · Seal

Fold the top flap down and glue or tape it. The gold seal sits on the back.

Reindeer food tags

FOR CHRISTMAS EVE

Print on card stock and cut out. Fill a small snack bag with reindeer food, fold a tag over the top on the dotted line and staple it shut.

How to make reindeer food

- 1 cup rolled oats
- 2 tablespoons colored sugar or sprinkles
- a pinch of cinnamon (optional)

1. Mix everything in a bowl and spoon into small bags.
2. On Christmas Eve, sprinkle it on the lawn or by the door.

Kind to wildlife: please skip glitter, which birds and animals can swallow.

CHRISTMAS MORNING

A note from Santa

Dear _____,

Thank you for the cookies and milk!

They were the tastiest treats in the whole world, and they kept me warm for the rest of my journey. Your home looked so cozy tonight. Thank you for being such a kind and thoughtful helper this year.

Love, Santa

CHRISTMAS MORNING

From the reindeer

Dear _____,

Thank you for the snack!

We munched every last crumb before our long flight home. Our hooves are happy, our tummies are full, and we could smell your yard from way up in the sky! Merry Christmas!
